

JUDI KICKEL

I call myself a fabric architect because I love to create buildings using fabric. I thought using paper would be the same and it was exciting to see it wasn't and to work out new techniques to create this building.